From Principal's Desk

It is my privilege and pleasant duty to recount the special events and share here on the occasion of bringing out the second issue of Volume XIII of our College Newsletter "Reflections". It is a matter of pride not only to our College but also to the entire Narasapur town that our beloved Secretary and Correspondent, Dr C. Satyanarayana Rao garu was honoured with the prestigious "Vaidya Bhushan" Award by HMTV & 4th Screen Communications at Hyderabad in December, 2019.

Ms. S.M. Maheswari
Principal

'Sankranti Sambaraalu' were celebrated with gaiety and fervour in January 2020 during which our College felicitated three local eminent personalities who made outstanding contributions to the Society. On the Republic Day, the College has distributed sewing machines to the needy women through our Community Service Center to make livelihood using the training they received in the Center. UGC Expert Committee for Extension of Autonomous Status visited the College in February and recommended for the extension after a very detailed study of all the departments and facilities. I am very glad to say that we have not only got extension of Autonomous Status for UG programmes but also got the PG Programmes

under the Autonomous umbrella with their suggestion and recommendation. The College Annual Day was celebrated on March 12, 2020 for which Prof. Padala Rajasekhar, Professor of Psychology, Adikavi Nannaya University graced as Chief Guest and gave away Cash awards, Scholarships and Endowment Prizes to the meritorious students. Seminars, Workshops continued to be actively organised and Minor Research projects as well as Student Research Projects were carried out under the RUSA 2.0 Scheme.

When the unprecedented pandemic has forced the lockdown conditions the online activities have sprung up to keep up the academic tempo with Webinars, Online Classes and Online Quizes by all the Departments. Besides academic Activities, the College donated Rs. 1 lakh to the CM Relief Fund and spontaneously volunteered to take up several relief activities to alleviate the sufferings of neighbourhood communities by resorting to distribution of Essential Commodities, Medicines and Masks through NSS Units and Community Service Centre. Entire staff stood as one family to tide over the difficult situation with the great compassionate support from our Exemplary Management.
