On 1st February, 2025, Our IQAC has received the 2F & 12B document from the UGC. This is a great achievement, as from now on, the name of Sri Y.N. College and its affiliation with AdikaviNannaya University will be mentioned in this document. That is, our college affiliation has changed from Andhra University to AdikaviNannaya University. This is a positive step towards obtaining an extension of autonomous status as well.

Autonomous Extension- On 15th March, 2025: Our IQAC has received the Autonomous Extension document from the UGC. The UGC has approved the extension of autonomous status to Sri Y.N. College for a period of 10 years, from the academic year 2024-25 to 2033-34.

3rd April 2025 - Our IQAC organized an Awareness Programme on the Guidelines of the Autonomous Extension Standing Committee and NAAC Guidelines for Quality Education Enhancement.

On 3rd May 2025, our IQAC organized a Short-term Internship Awareness Programme and Interactive Meet for IV Semester students. Representatives from Anjanaa's Foundation (Avanigadda), Technologic IT Solutions (Tanuku), and TBN Software Solutions and Consultancy (Amalapuram) conducted an interactive session with second-year graduate students regarding short-term internships (i.e., two months / 8 weeks / 120 hours).

The IQAC took proactive steps to implement the Academic Bank of Credits (ABC), facilitating academic mobility through credit transfer mechanisms, thereby enabling students to attain degrees seamlessly. A pivotal change in our assessment methodology was the heightened focus on Continuous Internal Assessment, constituting 40 percentage of the overall evaluation from the academic year 2024-25. This initiative aims to nurture critical thinking and presentation abilities among our students.

This year has been marked by concerted efforts, innovative initiatives, and transformative reforms aimed at enriching the academic experience and fostering excellence at Sri Y. N. College. We express our gratitude to all stakeholders for their unwavering support and commitment to our collective vision of educational advancement.
