

Mind Your Language (play)

12/03/2020

Mind Your Language (Play on the occasion of Annual Day Celebrations)

This is a play which focuses on the importance of English and how it is useful to achieve success in the students career. In this play students from different states and languages meet in a training centre, where they overcome their ignorance, get enlightened and develop their English Language Skills. This play gives a message to improve language and communication skills with a humourous touch. This was presented on college's Annual Day.

R.V. Lakshmi Devi 12/03/2020
gwen 12/3/20