Evaluation Report by External Peer Team on Institutional Autonomous Status Performance for the Academic Year 2018-19

Sri Y N College (Autonomous), Narsapur, initiated a comprehensive External Peer Review on March 13, 2019, at 10 am. This evaluative process aimed to gauge the efficacy of the institution's autonomy for the academic year 2018-19. Engaging with the college leadership, faculty, and staff, the peer team assessed operational aspects, unique initiatives, and transparency to determine the institution's commitment to autonomy and its maintenance of high academic standards.

Composition of the Peer Team:

S. No.	Name	Designation	Position
1	Dr. S Sankar	Retired Principal, Advisor, ANR College (Autonomous), Gudivada, Andhra Pradesh & IQAC Cluster India	Chairperson
2	Dr. V V S Naidu	Professor & Head, Department of Basic Sciences & Humanities, Swarnandhra Institute of Engineering and Technology, Seetharamapuram, Andhra Pradesh	Member
3	Dr. K Venkateswarlu	Principal, Sri Y N College (Autonomous), Narsapur	Member

Upon reviewing the activities during the academic year 2018-19, the peer team has observed the following:

1. The institution's commitment to community engagement is demonstrated through the active involvement of students in extension activities, including NSS, NCC, and sports, promoting a culture of social responsibility.
2. The commitment to vocational skill development is evident through a diverse range of skill-oriented programmes, showcasing a dedication to equipping students with practical expertise.
3. The autonomous status, coupled with a strong academic foundation, is highlighted by the transparent curriculum development process, adherence to established norms, and the integration of value education.
4. The college demonstrates a proactive approach in integrating technology into teaching methodologies, fostering an interactive and technology-enhanced learning environment.
5. The college regularly introduces innovative academic activities, emphasizing adaptability and relevance. The IQAC plays a pivotal role in upholding good practices and ensuring quality across all activities.
6. The institution has effectively implemented strategic initiatives, aligning with recommendations from NAAC Peer Team Report. This demonstrates a proactive approach in responding to feedback and consistently improving academic standards.
7. The institution has admirably formed crucial bodies like the Governing Council, Academic Council, Board of Studies, Finance Committee, and the IQAC, showcasing a strong governance structure in line with UGC guidelines.
8. The Board of Studies has revised syllabi thoughtfully, ensuring they align with the institution's vision. The adoption of the Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS) for UG programmes reflects forward-thinking.
9. The examination section operates seamlessly, introducing unique practices and efficient result declaration.

Suggestions/Recommendations from the External Peer Team:

- Initiate self-study courses tailored for advanced learners, enhancing their academic experience and allowing for independent exploration.

- Establish robust mechanisms to engage alumni, creating a network that can contribute to mentorship programmes, career guidance, and overall institutional development.
- Increase the subscription to e-resources, providing students with a comprehensive digital repository for academic reference and research purposes.
- Implement training programmes focused on competitive examinations to enhance students' preparedness, increasing their chances of securing better placements.
- Foster collaboration between the college and industries to align academic programmes with industry needs, ensuring students are well-prepared for the workforce.
